

OVERVIEW

Please note that you are limited to one application during the Fall recruitment period as we ask you to think ahead to what office you are interested in and what type of position you would like to pursue.

You've got big plans. We have big opportunities to match, and we're committed to empowering you to become a better you, no matter what you do.

When you join KPMG you'll be one of over 219,000 professionals providing audit, tax, advisory and business enablement services across 147 countries.

With the support to do things differently, grow personally and professionally and bring your whole self to work, there's no limit to the impact you can make. Let's do this.

What you will do:

Our Enterprise Core Services group is home to a team of professionals who provide accounting and tax services in the Greater Vancouver Area to private enterprises of all sizes and in a variety of different industries. We develop our people into trusted private enterprise business advisors over their careers.

Assurance and tax hours can be obtained as you work towards attaining your CPA designation under the review license. This position will work exclusively on review and compilation engagements and consequentially audit hours will not be provided.

In this role you will be required to apply KPMG's accounting and tax practices & methodologies to client engagements. This is an excellent opportunity to join our growing practice which will provide opportunities for both career and personal advancement. There is potential for this role to be based out of any of our Greater Vancouver offices, including Langley or Vancouver.

What you bring to the role:

You're a highly motivated student who strives for excellence, innovation and collaboration. You're passionate about being involved in your local community and university and have a proven ability to achieve personal and professional success while juggling competing priorities and deadlines. You have a strong academic record and are committed to achieving your CPA designation.

Keys to your success:

- Strong relationship-building skills that will enable you to easily interact with clients, colleagues, and the wider community.
- A commitment to continual learning – developing new skills, taking on new responsibilities and broadening your knowledge through research.
- The ability to provide crucial consultation and analysis for the variety of clients you will serve.

For an easy application process, please PDF all documents into one unlocked PDF file. Applications should include a cover letter, resume, and an electronic copy of your most recent transcript. If you do not have access to an electronic copy of your transcript, we ask that you attach a screenshot of your grades from your school's website.

Please apply to the posting for the office you are most interested in. You will be given the opportunity to select your position preference (Summer Intern, Co-op Student, or Full Time Employee) using the pre-screening questions. Please note that not all offices offer all positions
